25. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Robert (Red) Morrison, ACDA, visited in the office to get some fill in on the ramifications of S. Res. 400, making the point that their programs will indeed truly suffer if proliferation of information has the effect through leakage of diminishing our capabilities in the areas of verification, etc.

9. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON J.J. Hitchcock, State Department, called on behalf of Sam Goldberg, of State, explaining that the officer who had been following the oversight issue in the Senate had transferred and they needed a fill-in on the status of S.Res.400. I explained the various options being considered, reviewed the principles which require unified support, and suggested that we keep in close touch as we get down to the wire. He will pick up our supporting material tomorrow.

20. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Bob Hull, ~~State Department~~, and alerted him to the changes in the Agency's funding proposal in our bill amending CIARDS which were made in view of the objections raised by the House Appropriations Committee. I informed him that the Committee staff indicated they will probably make the same changes to State's bill amending their retirement Act when their bill comes under review.
